Managing HR Through COVID-19: A Practical Guide for Multinational Employers

As we continue to closely monitor the coronavirus situation worldwide, Mayer Brown's COVID-19 Global Response Team is dedicated to providing a comprehensive and coordinated response to issues that businesses face in the wake of the outbreak.

To address the needs of our clients in this unfolding crisis, we have produced a guide aimed to help employers manage HR legal and practical issues arising from COVID-19. It covers:

- Good Practice Guidance – giving high-level consideration;
- An Action Point Checklist – to drill down into the detail; and
- Answers to Key Questions facing employers in select jurisdictions.

Please note that this guide is under continuing review. Please contact your usual Mayer Brown contact for advice on the most up-to-date position.
